

Winter term 2002/3

‘Grundstudium’: (first two years of the M.A. study)

Basic courses (compulsory)

1. Introduction to the study of ethnology; lecture, 2 hours per week
2. History of ethnology; lecture, 2 hours per week
3. Introduction to ethnology of religions; lecture and seminar, each 2 hours per week
4. Introduction to scientific working; seminar, 2 hours per week

Additional courses (non compulsory)

1. Tourism and ethnology; seminar, 2 hours per week
2. ‘Kolloquium’ for students who prepare their M.A. thesis

Regions: South America:

1. Introduction to Ethnography of South America; lecture, 2 hours per week

‘Hauptstudium’: (last two years of the M.A. study)

1. Cultural-anthropological research on youth; seminar, 2 hours per week

Regions: Arabic countries

1. Ethnography of North Africa; seminar, 2 hours per week
2. The ‘Nile countries’ and their cultural historical relationship; seminar, 2 hours per week

South America:

1. New ethnological literature about South America; seminar, 2 hours per week
2. The invention of America; seminar, 2 hours per week

Roma studies:

1. Reading course ‘Tsiganology’; 2 hours per week

Additional courses (non compulsory)

‘Institutskolloquium’ (a kind of round table where different ethnologists present a topic they choose)

Summer term 2003

‘Grundstudium’: (first two years of the M.A. study)

Basic courses (compulsory)

1. Introduction to social and political ethnology; lecture and seminar, each 2 hours per week
2. Introduction to the history of Ethnology; lecture and seminar, each 2 hours per week

Additional courses (non compulsory)

1. Introduction to urban ethnology; lecture, two hours per week
2. ‘Kolloquium’ for students who prepare their M.A. thesis

Regions: Arabic countries

1. Introduction to the ethnography of the Near East; lecture and seminar, each 2 hours per week

‘Hauptstudium’: (last two years of the M.A. study)

1. Complex of merits; seminar, 2 hours per week
2. Ethnomedicine in Indian America; seminar, 2 hours per week
3. Local-global: discussing globalisation; seminar, 2 hours per week

Regions: Arabic countries

1. Clothes and identity in the Near East; seminar, 2 hours per week
2. The Kurds: History, social structure and the todays problems of a divided people in the Middle East; lecture, 2 hours per week
3. Women and neighbourhood in the Near East; seminar, 2 hours per week
4. Traditional structures of the Jemenite tribes and their changing; lecture, 2 hours per week
5. Historical ethnography II: Uzbeks; seminar, 2 hours per week

South America:

1. Urban sounds: popular culture and music in Latin America; seminar, 2 hours per week
2. Analyzing myths: some South American examples; seminar, 2 hours per week
3. Minority politics in Indian America; seminar, 2 hours per week

Africa:

1. Peasants-pastoralists’ relationship in Africa; seminar, 2 hours per week

Roma studies:

1. Reading course and preparation of the excursion ‘Tsiganology’; 2 hours per week